She's the keeper of the sacred Water & Fire codes of life, reunifying them within both the Divine Masculine and Feminine, spinning them back into equilibrium. The supreme soul Creatress, the formless movement of energy seeking form. All phenomena of creation, existence & resolution are generated from her dance. She takes on many forms, carries many names & moves energy as needed. She exists in gentle strength. Honor her. She is the embodiment of purity, knowledge and self-realization—the highest form of TRUTH present in any Being.

Sacred Elemental Nation Vibration

:: Gifts of Nature Made Manifest ::

The Elemental Nations are earth realm Guardians... utilizing the multidimensional aspect of etheric love & light to manifest higher dimensional vibrations into form. LOVE is a vibrational element that carries all potentials of the universe, seeking to manifest in new creations. Our thoughts & actions also reverberate potential into form. Our body systems carry all the photonic structures of Nature within the seed codes of our unique Energy Frequency Signatures—in our movement & silence we synchronistically exist within larger realms of all elements in all universes.

We are simultaneously distinct & unified.

The Spirit of Creation exists within the One & the All.

All Elemental Nations work together, each bringing to life the beauty of their gifts.
ONENESS.

Galactic Portal Realm Expansion

:: Opening Connections Between Dimensions ::

Anything & everything is a portal—a STARGATE passageway that connects with creative energy SOURCE flowing through everything. Your body system is a vehicle, your thoughts already connect to all realms of Light. Determine the frequency at which you wish to vibrate...observe, imbue & become that energy force. Re-tune yourself to that vibration & you can transport yourself anywhere you choose to journey in the physical & star realms. You are the bridge—when you in-tune with other dimensions you become a vibrational match—then, you can speak any language, move into any realm, and create freely. Choose a path & manifest anything needed as you require. The vibrational key is LOVE...when you open your heart everything is possible. Only through the heart we connect with the all.

Orbs of Light Made Manifest

Orbs are LIGHT BEINGS that exist everywhere around us.

They are unique soul expressions: ancestors, StarBeings, thought forms, electromagnetic plasma, universes. Each Orb carries an individual Energy Frequency Signature vibration— unique soul/spirit key codes that embody who or what they represent at that moment. They are diverse in form, color, sound, movement & dimension. Each is distinct. Each has a purpose, consciousness & intelligence. Just like you. When you awaken your higher senses you can perceive them easily. They travel effortlessly in & out of space & time, carrying messages to us all. Humans are Light Orbs. # Sacred Grandmother Tree

:: Remembering Ancient Truths ::

Ancient Trees were the Sacred Elders & Guardians of each continent in ancient times. These were the original MOTHER trees of life, who sustained humanity's breath of life. Over time, humanity chose to separate from Creator & lost connection to Nature. We forgot our obligations as caretakers to these great ancient Beings, & the feminine essence of Creation hidden within the trees was diminished & subdued. All trees house ancient memory & still connect with all other trees all across the land through their roots. Our trees carry great wisdom & patience. They carry knowledge in their rings about all things that occurred on those lands—they are a natural database of information. We humans are walking trees & must remember our heart connection to the elementals, and choose to walk again alongside these magic beings with respect. Open your heart again to the tree. Let its sap heal you, let its trunks protect you, let its roots ground you. Give thanks for the tree's offerings that keep you alive, and become one again with the Tree Nations.
